

Blunt by Amanda Kay

1st Verse

Am<sup>add9</sup> Em
I want to write a song for you Andy
Am<sup>add9</sup> Em
We shared good times when we were randy
Am<sup>add9</sup> Em
Your touch was electric it made me quiver
Am<sup>add9</sup> Em
Now I need to learn to be a forgiver

Chorus

F G F G
You didn't really want me but you took me anyway
F G F G
Now I guess you understand it's not a game I play
F G F G
I'd be full of hope until you tell me you don't want
F G F F<sup>maj7</sup>
Then I'll fall to pieces and think of you as blunt

2nd Verse

Bm<sup>sus4</sup> F#m
Andy, Andy life is fair only to those real strong
Bm<sup>sus4</sup> F#m
I just bend and hoped a bit that we could get along
Bm<sup>sus4</sup> F#m
You only shared when you thought I was leaving
Bm<sup>sus4</sup> F#m
With all these lessons I can see a life of grieving

Chorus
3rd Verse

C#m<sup>sus7</sup> G#m
I won't push and you won't pull and life will stay the same
C#m<sup>sus7</sup> G#m
I can even take it I can go through that again
C#m<sup>sus7</sup> G#m
Life is full of hopeful dreams crashing against reality
C#m<sup>sus7</sup> G#m
If I don't stop throwing it could end up calamity

Chorus
