

James by Amanda Kay

1st Verse

G⁶
It's such a beautiful thing
C^{maj9} C⁴
To hear a sure melody float by on the wind
G⁶
A sweet baritone gently sighing
C^{maj9} C⁴
With smooth even tones softly crying

Chorus

Bm⁷ Am⁷
The passion is there and the metre well tempered
E^{7sus4} Em⁷ E^{7sus4}
There is sorrow and joy in the voice I remembered
Bm⁷ Am⁷
A rich warm tone terribly catching
E^{7sus4} Em⁷ E^{7sus4}
And a telling note in his chuckle that tells of plans hatching

2nd Verse

A big gentle man the shoulder steady
To keep letting it be cried on by many
Then to hear him hum a sweet refrain
Giving chance to composure regain

Chorus
3rd Verse

How does the singer of such warm tones
Invoke a feeling that everyone knows
Like the warmth of a hearth on a cold winters day
Cosy and comforting woes melting way

Chorus

Maybe his journey has not been a smooth flow
Sounds like in places he had to row
Through turmoil and angst and kaffuffle enough
Now he knows what's of value is happiness and love
